The Department of Psychology at Howard University welcomes applications for their culture-relevant, scientifically-oriented, intellectually stimulating, clinical psychology doctoral training program.

We have a diverse faculty and student body representing several international and intra-national geographic regions, speaking a wide range of languages.

Clinical Faculty’s Research Areas:
• Health Disparities
• Health Psychology
• Behavioral Sleep Medicine
• Psycho-oncology
• Psychoneuroimmunology
• HIV Risk
• Violence Prevention
• Substance Abuse
• Religion/Spirituality
• Psychopathology

HU is a private, historically Black university, located in the Nation’s Capital. Students have access to diverse populations, relevant organizations and various collaborative research and training sites.

HU is an interdisciplinary campus with training at: HU Hospital, HU Cancer Center, Genome Center, Surgery and Nephrology, Psychiatry, Counseling Center, Dentistry, Nursing, Biology, HIV/AIDS Consortium, School of Divinity and Law.

HU APA Accredited Clinical Psychology Ph.D. Program’s application deadline is December 1st.

http://www.coas.howard.edu/psychology/