Enter the extravagant, decadent, rebellious world of a legendary musician.

A provocative hybrid of dance and Broadway musical, FELA! features the Afrobeat music of Fela Anikulapo-Kuti, a book by Jim Lewis, and the direction and choreography of Tony® Award winner Bill T. Jones.

His Passion Ignited a Generation.
His Music Fueled a Revolution.
His Legacy Inspires the World.

FELA! uses stirring Afrobeat music (a blend of jazz, funk, and African rhythms and harmonies) to tell the story of Kuti’s controversial life as artist, political activist and revolutionary musician. Featuring many of Fela Kuti’s most captivating songs and Bill T. Jones’s visionary staging, FELA! is the most original new musical on Broadway.

Come for the music.
Come for the dancing.
Come awaken your soul.

Sat. Mar. 6, 2010

ONE-DAY BUS-TRIP
Leave DC at 8am, Return at night

SIGN UP NOW!
Department of World Languages & Cultures
Sign up list in Locke Hall, Room 348

CONTACT
Ms. Jean Skinner
jmskinner@howard.edu
(202) 806-6758

Sign up list requires your name, phone number and email. Trip details will be sent out via email.

Eugene O’Neill Theatre
230 West 49th Street
New York, NY 10036

$32
$47
$47
$47

www.FELAonBROADWAY.com