A STUDY ABROAD TESTIMONY BY MICHAEL WHITE

Moreover, this journey provided a unique chance to delve into the rich history of the Black diaspora, meet students from all over Europe, and Experience Europe in a very unique way. Engaging ancestry presentations and immersive cultural experiences deepened my understanding of our collective heritage, allowing me to celebrate the resilience and creativity of our community.

I am immensely grateful to Howard University, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Incorporated, and Dr. Gladys M. Francis for entrusting me with this incredible opportunity. Representing our esteemed institutions and making lasting connections while leaving an indelible mark on the international stage was truly a remarkable experience.

This spring, I had the incredible opportunity to represent Howard University and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated during my journey to London, England, and Leicester, England! During this unforgettable experience, I had the honor of showcasing our vibrant culture and talent through an electrifying step show.

As ambassadors, we inspired and entertained audiences with our captivating performances, embodying the spirit of excellence and unity. Additionally, I was privileged to participate in master classes led by renowned choreographers from around the globe. Learning from these exceptional artists enhanced my skills and broadened my perspective on the power of movement as a form of expression.
