

FLAGSHIP FACULTY-LED STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

COLOMBIA

Department of World Languages and Cultures

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Title: SPAN 890 Study Abroad: Honors
Course SPAN 002 in Colombia

Contact Information:

mesi.e.walton@howard.edu

Course Description: The course includes an immersive Spanish language and experiential learning experience in Colombia, South America during Spring Break. Students will be introduced to the historic and current culture, and identify social changes.

FACULTY LEAD BIO

DR. MESI BAKARI WALTON

Dr. Mesi Bakari Walton's research intersects with Africana, Latin American, and Cultural Studies. Her work explores how Afro-diasporic cultures are employed within survival and identity through cultural texts of music, dance, language, and other practices. Dr. Bakari Walton is an Assistant Professor of Spanish and Afro-Diaspora Cultures at Howard University.

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

Number of Credit Hours	Enrollment Cap	Total Program Fee	Program Fees	Course Restrictions	Teaching Schedule
3	26	NONE. Not applicable	NONE. Not applicable	WLC Honors	MWF 11:10-12:00 Mackey Building RM 250