Department of Sociology and Criminology

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Title: SOCI 890 Study Abroad: Empires, Colonialism, Decolonization in Martinique

Study Abroad Trip: During Spring Break

Contact Information: anaheed.alhardan@howard.edu

Course Description: This course will introduce students to the legacy of the decolonization era, and explore its relevance for an understanding of our world today. The course will consider social theory concepts to emerge from this era, such as imperialism, colonialism and neocolonialism, and social theorists that articulated and theorized liberation, freedom and unity in response to colonial domination.
